6:00—Start of meeting with pizza and drinks

6:05—Announcement from Eve Felton from Sigma Alpha Professional Agriculture Sorority

- Eve is trying to get us to participate in the 2008 Agricultural Awareness Day at the Tate Student Center on Thursday, April 10, 2008.
- They did a survey of university students on which major they thought was the most useless and surprisingly they voted AGRICULTURE!!! So, this event is to bring awareness to the campus.
- We are to set up a booth and get the students involved somehow and the booth voted the best wins a prize.
- I have the flier that she brought to the meeting with all of the specifics which we will talk about at a later date when it comes closer to time.

6:15—Dr. Karnok's professionalism class came in

6:20—Introduction of Patrick O'Brien from the USGA

- He was a great speaker having more than 30 years experience in the industry
