6:00- 6:15

- Greetings between the members and arrival of everybody

6:15- 7:00

- FLAG FOOTBALL
- Dr. Karnok's annual backyard flag football game is always a highlight on the Turf Club Student's calendar. Dr. Karnok is the all-time QB, and rest of us pretty much run around

7:00- 7:50

- Club President, Jordan Bell, began by talking about late dues of some and the new window stickers that have just arrived
 - The stickers are to be sold for 5 dollars
- The numbers from the Golf Challenge are in. We made 380 dollars; this brings the grand total to over 2,100 dollars all together.
 - The Golf Challenge didn't raise a tremendous amount of money but it gave a lot of need experience for the future.
- David Fleming, last year's President, talked about the Field Trip to Atlanta Country Club
 - We will arrive at 9 to 9:30a.m
 - Have a question and answer
 - Eat lunch around 12 p.m., and be home by 3:30 p.m
 - David is excited because he will be moving right in to the 2nd assistants position as soon as he graduates and the course will be look for new hires soon
- The Club expressed interest it trying to have more cookout meetings, go to restaurants, or even bowling, and trivia
 - The Club wants to have more interaction between members and not be sitting in a classroom all the time.
- The GCSAA annual conference is in New Orleans this year, Jordan sid.
 - It is February 5, 6, 7, this year
 - All those with interest in attending need to become members of the GCSAA
 - The Turf Bowl will be held there, and the members that want to participate need to get with Robin Landry
- The Gwinnett County Vendor Fair is Dec. 10th, it is the Georgia Turfgrass Conference Show
- The UGA Ducks Unlimited is have their own cookout soon
- Dustin Purdue offered to talk to Sage Valley Golf Club to see if we can get a field trip to see their facilities sub-air system
- There will be 6 turf positions opening up in January in UGA Sports Turf, get Robin Landry
- Oddly, we had formal introductions at the end of the meeting

- We had 3 non-majors attend this time
